My First Day at the Zoo

I was on a trip to the zoo! the Animal ride here had to be the longest ride in the universe of Animal rides. first i went to go see my favorite animal, leopards. they roared in my face like crying babies with a poopie dipper! next i went to visit the polar bears. the papa was the biggest animal i probably had ever seen in my life! however the baby polar bears had to be the smallest!

It was finally Verb time. i had fried Noun which was Noun on the inside and crispy on the Noun. yummy in my Noun the last thing i did at the zoo was go to the Event Event. i looked around for a billion years, until i found what i wanted! a Noun Noun baby stuffed Noun. i loved my first trip to the zoo, i hope i could come back soon!
