Where the Sidewalk Ends

There is a place where theends
And before thebegins,
And there the Noun grows Adjective and white,
And there theburns crimson bright,
And there therests from his flight
To Adjective in the peppermint wind.
Let us leave this place where theblows black
And thestreet winds and bends.
Past the Noun where the Noun flowers grow shall verb with a verb that is measured and slow, Andwhere the chalk-white arrows go

To the place where theends.
Yes we'llwith a walk that is measured and slow,
And we'll go where the chalk-white arrows go,
For the Noun they mark, and the Noun they know
The place where the Noun ends.
