ZOMBIES!!!

I am a zombie, and it's not so Adjective. I'm Verb ending in ing to live with it. I'm sorry I can't properly introduce myself, but I don't have a Noun anymore. Hardly any of us do. We forget them, like Noun and Adjective Noun. I think mine might have started with a Letter but I'm not sure. It's Adjective because back when I was Adjective I was always Verb ending in ing other people's Plural noun. I am finding that Adjective Noun in the zombie life, an ever-present punch line. But it's Adjective to Verb when your Body part have rotted off .

Before I became a zombie, I think I was a Job or young Job of some kind. I think I worked in one of those Adjective Noun jobs in a Noun somewhere. The clothes clinging to the remains of my body are Adjective Noun. Fine gabardine slacks, silvery silk shirt, red Armani power tie. I would probably look pretty Adjective if my Noun weren't dragging at my feet. Ha.
