The Story of our Move to The City

One day my _____^{Relationship} decided we needed a bigger house. So, my _____^{Relationship} looked on craigslist, my _____^{Relationship} asked around school, and my dad looked through news papers. Until we finally found a house, in the city. It costs _____^{Number} a month,, it was a _____^{Number} bedroom house, _____^{Number} stories, and had _____^{Number} bathrooms. One for each of us. We purchased the house and had to move in the middle of the school year. We packed up all of our stuff and went to get a truck. We drove the truck home and loaded it with all of our stuff. Some of our stuff didn't fit in the truck, so we had to put it in the trunk of the car. We left our old house and headed for the new one. The new house was in _____^{Location} Bluffs and , our old house was in Stuart. It took us _____^{Number} and a half hours to get to _____^{Location} Bluffs, and an hour and a half to find the house. We finally found the house. It looked marvelous on the outside, bu when we opened the door, we saw carpeted floors, blue cupboards, and knocked down walls We all looked around the house together. The first room we looked in turned out to be my room. It was _____^{Color} and had a walk in closet. The second room we looked at was my _____^{Relationship} _____^{First name} room. It was deep _____^{Color} had a bathroom attached, and 2 walk in closets. My _____^{Relationship} and _____^{Relationship} room was huge. It had _____^{Number} walk in closets, _____^{Number} windows on each side of the room, the master _____^{Room} which was also huge. The house was everything more than we'd expected. I went to school in _____^{Location} Bluffs. I had my closet full before my dresser was even touched, my bed made before my mom had hers set up, and my _____^{Room} set up before my sister had hers even started. I Love our NEW HOUSE!!!!!!
