The Spelling Bee

It was early morning on _____ day of _____ 124th annual _____ Spelling Bee. All of the contestants were _____ their seats.

Then, the announcer went _____ to the podium, introduced the 100 contestants, said what school they were from, and started the bee.

In the first three rounds, almost every speller tripped up. They weren't upset when they missed _____ word though, since they all received a t-shirt and _____ for winning their school spelling bee. All but ten missed their _____ word. You could tell that the remaining ten spellers were happy _____. These ten spellers misspelled words one by one until there were two spellers left. One of them, a girl named Stella, would always _____ pretend to write the word on her _____ to visualize it. The other, a boy named Bobby, would always ask for the word's definition _____ origin to get a better understanding.

These two spellers went _____ more rounds, and no one misspelled a word. "_____ you guys are really good," the announcer said. But then, in the next round, Bobby missed a word, and Stella had a chance to win. She _____ spelled two words and won the bee. She _____ _____ screamed, "_____!" when she won. She lifted the trophy high and _____ for the camera. "_____,!" Bobby said, "I lost, but I tried my hardest
