_____ Noun(place) so John flew there in a purple plane. Yikes, your plane is about to wreck on the island but he safely parachuted in Lake Erie. You dry off and start looking for Jack. He finds a forest and he think he sees him . He runs toward it, but instead he loses sight of him and find a sticky _____ Noun(animal) Yuk! He later found a tent food and his friend Jerry. He asks if he wants to help you look for Jack and he said "Awesome, I'll come with you!" The two of them head out in the morning and look for Jack. He soon finds a mysterious footprint by your campsite and quickly takes a picture of it. Then he hears an awkward yelling about 2 miles from your tent. He searched the area and found Jack sleeping. He went to get Jerry and showed him where Jack was. He was in rough bed of leaves and had a freaky snore. He suddenly woke up and saw the two boys.

Jack asked John and Jerry if he could go somewhere with him. The boys said they would go with him and they all went off to explore. Jack said they can go above a big cave, but it would take those 2 hour(s) to get there. They then decided to run quickly to get there sooner. They started to move toward the cave but quickly encountered a Unicorn. They tamed the unicorn and they all flew toward the cave. They went to the top of the cave and were trying to take a picture, but Jack was scared of the camera and didn't take a picture.
