Just a Day Saving the World

It was a very nice day out and me and my _____Noun Steve wanted to hangout. So we asked our moms and they said _____Interjection. When I got to Steves house we got _____Article fast. _____Conjunction then we got the neighborhood together to play a football game. It was all good until someone scored and then _____Verb the ball _____Preposition the back yard, all of our lives _____Preposition change when that ball hit the ground. So it hit _____Interjection we heard a _____Adjective sound when the ball hit, so we went over to it and started to dig. When we _____Verb to dig we hit something big, we cleared the dirt, me _____Conjunction Steve were in _____Adjective. It was a bomb, big enough to blow Russia up. But we were relieved that it wasn't _____Preposition. Then Steve for some reason pressed the red button, I don't why he did that. The bomb _____Article to tick, we got scared. Everybody _____Verb to yell at Steve for pressing the red _____Noun. We only had 20 minutes to save America. We looked _____Article for the red and blue wire, it didnt have one, so we started to panic. But then Steve came over and got a _____Noun and hit the top of the bomb _____Conjunction the timer stopped we were _____Adjective that, that would stop it. _____Interjection Steve just saved America!
