As I sat in my _____ Adjective desk I could not help but _____ Adverb stare at the f clock. It was as if the Adjective minute hand wasn't even moving; as if I were to be stuck in this _____ Adjective class for all of eternity. To my right was a _____ Adjective Adjective guy who couldn't, even with all of his Adjective effort, stay awake. His _____ Adjective head would occasionally nod up, and he would return from his _____ Adjective dream momentarily and then _____ Adverb return back, peacefully drifting back into the realms of his _____ Adjective little mind. To my right was a _____ Adjective young teenage girl. Her

Adjective interest was revolved around a _____ Adjective buzzing, object inside her _____ Adjective
purse; her cell-phone. Apparently at the time our _____ Adjective teacher was lecturing about the many ways in which a student could solve a volume of revolution problem, whatever that means. He was a _____ Adjective
character in himself; _____
Adjective glass, _____
Adjective necktie, the stereo-typical _____ Adjective teacher.

I would have given anything to just hear that subtle.
