2010 Seaside Tournament

It is a _____ Adjective _____ Adjective _____ day _____ Noun _____ and I am ready to go to my first game of the basketball seaside tournament. It was a very _____ Adjective _____ drive last night from the city _____ Proper noun _____ to the _____ Adjective _____ beach of seaside. I throw on my uniform, _____ Color _____ Nike slides, throw my basketball shoes in my basketball bag an off I go.

When I get to the brand new courts I put on my _____ Color _____ Adidas with _____ Number _____ Color _____ _____ Nothing mess up _____ on the sides. I get excited when the rest of my team comes in matching _____ Color _____ and _____ Color _____ Showtime uniforms sponsored by Adidas. We warm up for a couple minutes, have our team talk and now its tome to play some basketball.

Bleeeeeep the score board screams. Our team _____ Noun _____ walks on the court ready to _____ Verb _____. Slap! our team starts with the ball. The game was an easy win they were way to _____ Adjective _____ and we were way too _____ Adjective _____ of shooters and dribblers. The score ended up being _____ Number _____ Number _____ to _____ Number _____ sweet victory

At the end we high fived them and say good game. I kind of felt bad though we creamed them they all looked sad. It was OK though because the next game we got creamed as payback by the falcons. When we go back to our hotels we rest and wait for our next game to come.
