

jessica mayonaise

1. Adjective
2. Past Tense Verb
3. Adjective
4. Past Tense Verb
5. Past Tense Verb
6. Adjective
7. Verb
8. Plural Noun
9. Adjective
10. Noun
11. Noun
12. Adjective

jessica mayonaise

As the Adjective boy woke up he noticed that he was seeing double rainbows. He Past tense verb for a while and then he noticed a horse with horns Adjective out of its jiggly stomach. The boy Past tense verb on the horse and decided to call it Jessica mayonaise. As they Past tense verb through the Adjective grass they noticed a jar of peanut butter that was shooting lasers out of its eyes. They Verb behind a rock and used they're tear drops to create Plural noun that they used to shoot at the jar of peanut butter. But then they noticed that the jar of peanut butter was really a baby in disguise and the boy and the horsy knew they were in trouble. But that did not stop them from Adjective things they blew up more jars of peanut butter disguised as babies until they got shot by one that could Noun and that was to much for them so thy died and became Noun that were Adjective.