my pet

A Adjective Boy name Jamal was the only child of his family. He had lot's of Noun - Plural. He also had lot's of Noun - Plural. One day Jamal was over his Chris house. Chris had a pet. As a matter of fact Chris had more then one pet. He had a Animal, a Adjective puppy, and a Animal. Jamal said i want a pet. Chris said you have to ask you parents first. Jamal said i will. Jamal stopped for a moment and asked Chris what Noun should i get? Chris said i don't know there are lot's of animals that can be a pet. Jamal said your right. Chris said i have a book that we can look at with animals in it. Jamal said OK . Chris Verb - Past Tense out his animal book and the two of them Verb - Past Tense through the book. Jamal said i want a Animal for a pet! Chris said cool that would be neat or how about a Animal! Jamal Verb - Past Tense and said yea or a Animal! They both Verb - Past Tense very Adjective and said yea that would be so cool. Jamal's mom called for him to go home. Chris said see you tomorrow i hope you get a pet that you like. Jamal said thanks, see ya. On the car ride home Jamal asked his mom if he could have a pet. She said sure what kind of pet would you like. Jamal said in an Verb - Past Tense and Verb - Past Tense voice I WANT AN Animal! Jamal's mom laughed and said sweetie an Animal won't fit in the house. Jamal was sad. His mom seen him become Adjective.
