The Beach

Hooray! Summer is finally here, and that means we can go to the beach! Today, my family is taking a trip to _____City or Town_____ Beach. I decided to invite _____Friend_____, whom is my best friend, since I can bring a friend with me. I know _____Same Friend_____ will want to go with us. She thinks going to the beach is _____Adjective_____! We start our beach day by watching the sunrise, and then eating breakfast out at Uncle _____Male_____ Pancake House. I always get _____Food (singular)_____ flavored pancakes. After breakfast we _____Present Tense Verb_____ the waves, go _____Verb Ending With -ing_____ for seashells, and _____Present Tense Verb_____ a sandcastle. But dont forget your sunscreen, the _____Noun_____ is blistering hot during the day. Then we eat the lunch we packed for the beach. It's my _____Food (singular)_____ sandwiches. The only time _____Food (singular)_____ sandwiches are not so _____Adjective_____ is when you drop them in the sand.

By _____Time_____:00, everyone's had enough of the beach. But _____City or Town_____ Beach is fun at night, too! There is a really _____Adjective_____ boardwalk, which is always crowded with people. Would you believe we saw my teacher _____Your_____. _____Teacher_____ there, eating a huge banana split? There are a lot of cool shops on the boardwalk. You can find anything from a little hermit crab, cotton candy, to the typical tourist tee shirt! The boardwalk also has many rides for all ages. My favorite ride is the _____Adjective_____ _____Amusement Ride_____ with the loop de loop and steep drops. It is considered the great scream machine. After _____Verb Ending With -ing_____ till we drop, _____Verb Ending With -ing_____ our faces with _____Food (singular)_____ and ice cream, and riding all the rides, we've had enough of the boardwalk essentials. By _____Time_____:00, we're all ready to head home. As I look out the car window, passing by all the _____City or Town_____ landmarks I wish I could stay, but I know well be back sometime soon. I usually fall asleep on the ride home. I can't wait to go to _____City or Town_____ Beach again.
