Our day at the zoo

Yesterday, my family and I took a trip to the zoo. The entire car ride there, my brother would shout, Are we there yet? My dad would just laugh and say, A few more minutes! To pass the time, I took out my deck of cards and _____ Verb - Past Tense go-fish with my brothers. I ended up beating them every round. When we finally arrived at the zoo, we _____ Adverb parked the car and ran out towards the ticket booth. Go get tickets for a full day, my dad told me as he handed me some _____ Noun. I grabbed my brothers hands and _____ Verb - Past Tense towards the ticket booth. When I got the tickets, we ran back to our parents and our day began.

First, we stopped at the lion habitat. There were males, females, and small cubs all sleeping together in the cage. As soon as we got close to the cage, Milo, the _____ Adjective male, awoke from his deep slumber under a tree. He _____ Verb - Past Tense and roared as he stood up. It was so cool! We werent allowed to get that close to them but we did get some pretty _____ Adjective pictures of them. My brothers wanted to see the monkeys next, so we walked over to where the monkeys were being held. They were all very loud with their _____ Verb - Present (-ing), but they were so cool to see. My dad called them fascinating and my mom was even allowed to pet one ! We saw a bunch of other cool animals like birds, bears, rhinos, hippos, and I even got to hold a _____ Noun ! My brother eventually started _____ Verb - Present (-ing) for food, so I ended up buying everyone cotton candy. Our experience was so much fun. At the end of the day, my mom said she became a child again. When my dad told us we could go back again soon, my brothers and I _____ Verb - Past Tense, Yay!
