The Story of Keith and Shayna

Keith and Shayna met at _____Adjective_____ University. Keith was _____Adjective_____ on his degree in Theology and Shayna had a dream of becoming an eye doctor one day. _____Adjective_____ favorite sport and is basketball and Shayna happened to notice how handsome he was with that great head of hair. Shayna was frequently found studying in the library and Keith thought that Shayna was not only smart, but absolutely gorgeous. Keith finally built up enough courage to ask Shayna out on a date. Shaynas heart was all a flutter. He took her to Macaroni Grill. She _____Adjective_____ the food was the best she had ever tasted. Afterwards they went on a long walk and just sat and gazed at the stars.

Soon they began dreaming about each other all of the time. Within a few short months, Keith asked Shayna to marry him and it wasnt long before they were walking down the aisle of the church. For their honeymoon, they flew off to Hawaii to spend the week relaxing on the beach and enjoying their new life together.

When they returned from Hawaii, Keith began working as a Pastor for the Oregon Conference. The people at the church were so impressed with his wisdom and maturity at such a young age. Shayna went right back to school to work on her degree. They will now be heading off to Andrews University where Keith will finish his Masters degree in Theology. Shayna will be graduating in a few short weeks with a doctoral degree. She will then be able to help people see better with their eyes.

We wish them the best as they head off on their new adventure and hope that they never forget their friends here at the Beaverton Church.

The End
