The Daring Attack

I _____ my _____ out of our hiding place on top of the cliff. Wilson was beside me, _____ the bag of _____. "Is that the enemy _____?" he asked. I _____ at the huge concrete _____, protected behind barbed wire fences with walls patrolled by _____ guards. "It certainly doesn't look _____", I said. We looked at each other grimly and _____. We left our hiding place and started to climb down the steep rock face behind the base. We _____ for a moment on a wide shelf of rock, before leaping down to the ground. I pulled some wire cutters from my _____ and set about _____ a patch of fence big enough for us both to crawl through. One at a time, we _____ between the _____ against the walls, laying the _____ charges against the wall. The next part was the hardest. Together, we scaled the fence closest to us, _____ slowly through the _____ wire on top. It took a long time to clear a big enough patch, but as soon as we were sure we had made a path for our platoon, we _____ over the other side and ran. _____ echoed behind us- the guards had seen us! But it didn't matter. Just as we dived into the trench we had dug earlier, the walls of the enemy base _____ in a ball of _____. As the _____ cleared, our platoon poured out from their hiding places, through the paths we made and into the _____ building. The base _____ to us!
