If I were famous

If I were famous, I'd be a Job. I'd show all the little kids that I'm the best at Hobby. Everyone would feel Emotion when I'm around them. It's step in the school and all the kids would yell, "Omg it's Your name! We Emotion you!". I would get Food and Noun everyday. Then if I get bored I'd switch to Job ending in ING and people would like me better. I would get out of my Noun every morning feeling so Emotion! All the Opposite gender as you ending in ing would like me. They'd smother me in Noun. But I'm not so goodbye.
