Insurance Claim

I was taking my boat to the _____ Noun for a day of fun in the _____ Proper Noun. The sky was _____ Adjective, the grass was _____ Adjective, and it was a beautiful day to be on the water. As I was driving down the road, I had the worst luck with other _____ Noun - Plural cutting in and out in front of me. I thought, gee, it must be a full moon tonight. As I came to the next intersection, all of a sudden a young _____ Noun driving a flaming red moped cut in front of me and slammed on his brakes to look at a _____ Noun that was sitting on the side of the road. Initially, I thought that was rather rude, as I slammed on my brakes to avoid running him over. Suddenly, I heard a large _____ Adjective and my boat was no longer on the trailer, but was instead on my truck. Talk about _____ Adjective!! The police came, and wrote the kid a ticket for improper lane change. He gave me his insurance _____ Noun, so that I could have my truck fixed. Then I drove to the lake and backed my truck into the _____ Noun to launch the boat. It was too nice a day to go back home!!!
