The Young man

A young man went to the _____Place_____to purchase some food for his family. While he was walking to the _____(same place)_____he saw a _____Adjective_____house; he started dashing towards the burning house not knowing what to do. He stood there for _____Number_____seconds until a _____Person_____had arrived; he walked close to the boy and said "It wasn't a _____Adjective_____house it was really a house that was painted _____Adjective_____ _____Color_____"; The boy felt foolish and became embarrassed and never came back to that house again. His family has never heard of this day, and probably never will. The End.
