Morning Time

One Past tense verb I woke up and I couldn't believe my eyes, I saw a soaring elephant floating out of my Location I said to my self "is that Animal Color"; Well it turns out that he was. Then he told me his name was First name which I thought was weird. But then out of nowhere he left and I felt as if I was talking to myself. Now Number years later I still think I was just dreaming that Color Animal but who knows maybe it was just a really stupid figment of my imagination.
