Cole's Extreme Birthday Party!

We woke up this morning very late as Cole was nervous about his birthday party and baseball and soccer tryouts.

We woke up late but totally excited for the day... So much was going on that we got a bit overwhelmed by all the activity ahead. We knew that it would be one extreme birthday party day. SOOOOO....

First we got up and we had a _____ Adjective _____ Adjective breakfast. Cole started by eating _____ High number bagels. And then he ate _____ High number bowls of cereal, _____ High number glasses of juice, and _____ High number hard boiled eggs. After breakfast, he had eaten soooo much that he went into the bathroom for a long time... _____ High number minutes he was in there! Ha ha!

We then watched some TV and then decided to get ready to go out for the day. We played _____ Sport and _____ Sport and _____ Sport. And then we went up to the Mustang Soccer complex for soccer tryouts.

During the try out, Cole scored _____ High number goals and ran the 100 yard dash in _____ Low number seconds. It was amazing!

We then jumped in the car and drove home in _____ Low number seconds... Cole's dad probably should have gotten arrested for driving so fast. And then all of Cole's friends came over for his birthday party... the EXTREME birthday party!

First

we went to Rockin Jump and while there _____ Name _____ set a record for jumping higher than anyone else... he jumped _____ High number _____ feet in the air and did a _____ SkiSnowboard Move _____ Move MOVE. _____ Name _____ also set a record by jumping and doing _____ High number _____ somersaults in the air before landing and doing the _____ SkiSnowboard Move _____ Move move. And when all you boys played dodge ball, _____ Name _____ was clearly the best player... after having _____ High number _____ balls thrown at him, he was the last person standing. What a great jumping time we had!

Then began the impossible shot challenges...

_____ Name _____ set the record for the most challenging nerf gun shot... shooting a marshmallow from _____ High number _____ feet away.

_____ Name _____ set a record for the most outrageous tennis ball throw into a moving car from _____ High number _____ feet away.

_____ Name _____ then set a record for the longest watermelon throw... throwing it _____ High number _____ feet!

Then we obliterated with a baseball bat a series of targets ranging from eggs to apples to oranges.

And then we were able to get our entire group to overcome the over the rope challenge... every team member climbed over a rope obstacle _____ Low number _____ feet high.

OUTRAGEOUS!

We then came back and _____ Name _____ set a world record for the most outrageous ice cream sundae!

_____ Low number _____ scoops of ice cream, tons of whipped cream, _____ Low number _____ bananas, _____ Low number _____ cherries, and _____ Low number _____ gummy bears in a bowl and devoured the entire thing in _____ Low number _____ seconds. None of us could believe it when he finished it. Too bad he got really sick and puked on _____ Name _____ Name _____ Name _____. How disgusting that was!

But that wasn't the very worst... _____ Name _____ set the record for the longest burp of _____ High number _____ seconds

. And _____ Name _____ set the record for the stinkiest burp by making _____ Low number _____ people fall over unconscious from the stink. But we were all OK in the end.

OUTRAGEOUS!

We then calmed down by watching some of the most outrageous sports footage in the whole wide world!

We all had a great time!
