

Tornadoes

1. Noun - Plural
-

Tornadoes

born in Greece and live with her mother and father. While she was a young toddler she was kidnapped by pirates sold and taken to Egypt. In Korea there lived a young girl named Pear Blossom. She was raised with a gentle father _____ Noun - Plural an elderly mother. After the birth of their daughter, Pear Blossom, they planted a pear blossom tree so they could watch the tree grow just as their daughter would grow. During the winter months it was hard for the mother to get around and one winter night she passed away. A few weeks after the mother had passed the father was feeling lonely so he put on his best clothes and went into the village to a match maker. It did not take long for the father to find love again with women. The women he found had a lovely young daughter the same age as Pear Blossom.

In all of the Cinderella stories the mother dies after giving birth to their daughter, the father remarries, and step mother turns Cinderella into the family's personal slave. The father either dies shortly after the wedding or he is in such a trance from the beauty of the