Science Show

Today in this science show I will be teaching you all about electricity. You use electricity when you watch TV and when you turn on the Noun - Plural. The best part about electricity is computers. When studying electricity, you can play with Noun - Plural and batteries to create dangerous, exciting Noun - Plural. If you do get electrocuted, you will turn into a animal. The worst thing about science is that it is really Verb - Present Tense. Over the past few years scientist have discovered lots of thing such as Noun - Plural and new Noun - Plural. The worst diseases are rabies and the black death. If you ever become a scientist, never study diseases because you might catch one.
