The confused monkey

Once upon a time, there lived a very Adjective, confused monkey. The monkey was confused because when he was born he was dropped on his body part. All his animal would tease him because he would walk into Noun - Plural because his body part looked in different direction. One day he tried to get revenge but he failed because he missed the 1st branch of 12 branches. One day the confused monkey hit his head so hard that he knew what $1+1=2$ and $2+2=4$. Then all the rest of the day the Verb - Past Participle monkey kept on his on his desk as hard as he could then the next day the confused monkey got everything right in every single Noun. Then the next day the monkey came to class at time:time am in morning and did everyones Noun. Then the next day he came in at normal time and changed his name to scientist scientist monkey and ruled the class. Then the next day he lithely looked exactly the same as Seve Hawking but a monkey. He was a genius. Then the next day UNI then the day he some how turned 99 then the next day he sadly died Then the human Steve hawking was born!!!
