The Monster

I was on a Noun trip, when suddenly I found myself Past tense verb in the woods ! I heard a Noise and the branches came down. I was trapped! 'Oh my God!' I screamed at the top of my lungs.

Then I saw the monster. He had eyes all over his arms and was ten feet tall, with slimy skin and ratty brown hair.

It was a fearsome sight to behold! I watched in horror as it demolished everything I had brought with me, including my tent and food. I ran from it as fast as I could, but I still heard the deafening thud of the thing running after me. I got an idea - I reached into my pocket and grabbed my lighter. I threw it at the monster, and it hit one of its eyes. While it twisted in pain, I hid behind a cabin. After a few minutes of silence, I looked over my shoulder. I sighed with relief and headed back to home, where I knew things would be normal.
