My First Day as a Freshman

Being a freshman can be scary. When I first walked into the big school I felt so short. I walked around only to get tripped by someone who just stood there and laughed. As I hurried around the corner to the stairs, I fell again . Why can't I stop _____ Verb - Present ends in ING ? I'm so scared and I do not know anyone. Where is the classroom I need to go to? Someone help me, please! Everyone is looking at me because I look like a dork. Where are all the other freshman? Where is Chelsea? OMG! There she is, what happened to her. She looks taller, prettier, and much more developed than me. High School sucks!
