More stories at WordBlanks.com

Rascal By Andrew Hasik

1. Noun _____
2. Verb - Base Form _____
3. Adjective _____
4. Proper Noun _____
5. Conjunction _____
6. Pronoun _____
7. Animal _____
8. Conjunction _____
9. Pronoun _____
10. Animal _____
11. Verb - Base Form _____
12. Adverb _____
13. First Name Of A Person _____
14. Preposition _____

Rascal By Andrew Hasik

Abandoning someone can lead to a new life or to new sorrow. Without that somebody, you may be joyful, or in grief. Rascal, Sterlings raccoon, did just that. Rascal was a wild _____Noun_____, living in the forest with his family. He was a typical raccoon, but one day a child stole him. Sterling North, the child who took Rascal, raised the raccoon as if he were a human. He _____Verb - Base Form_____ him some of his _____Adjective_____ breakfast, took him around town, and slept with him at night. How much better could a raccoons life get? All though Rascal had everything he needed, he may mot have enjoyed the human lifestyle. He may have thought, I cant get back to my family, so Ill stay with this kid. _____Proper Noun_____ took Rascal on adventures throughout the town, and they explored different areas. Many important events occurred during Rascal _____Conjunction_____ Sterlings life together. Rascal needed a leash, collar, and cage to keep him out of trouble. He also needed to stay in his cage for two weeks when people believed Rascal had rabies. The two had a great life together, but one day, Rascal ended it. Rascal was riding with Sterling in their canoe, when he suddenly spotted something. He witnessed the most beautiful thing in his entire life. _____Pronoun_____ saw a female _____Animal_____. Rascal was exciting about this sight, _____Conjunction_____ thought about leaving. _____Pronoun_____ thought about abandoning his friend for this _____Animal_____. Stop, Sterling quickly stated. He didnt want his friend to leave. Rascal didnt listen, gave a farewell signal, and jumped out of the canoe. Sterling realized he should let him go. He should let him live his life. Rascal _____Verb - Base Form_____ _____Adverb_____ to shore and met the new raccoon. Sterling knew it was good for Rascal to abandon him, and to live his new life with the raccoon. _____First Name of a Person_____ gave a goodbye to Rascal, never to see the raccoon again. With abandoning someone you can feel the pain. You may also feel the joy of moving _____Preposition_____ to someone or something different.

©2026 WordBlanks.com · All Rights Reserved.