Nothing to Fear- TL

In life there are times when you feel an _____Adjective_____ _____Noun_____ inside of you during moments it seems like all you have ever _____Verb - Past Tense_____ or had is gone, but it is impossible to run out of everything. One of these beautiful things is love. Love was like the special glue which held the terribly unlucky Garveys together in their times of great desperation. It made losing Mr. Garvey feel worse than anything, for true love and friendship they have for him will, like Mama said, never run out. _____Proper Noun_____ will last a lifetime even though he is no longer on Earth to carry on their lives with. Now Hank has become a part of the family and will be what this family may need to go on without _____Adverb_____ wretchedness after all of this. Mary and Danny have felt the true heartache which comes along with that moment of shock which is almost unbearable when your life might have just changed forever. This colossal amount of pain and loss scarred Danny pretty badly to the point where he thought his best choice was to secretly leave to try to find his father, but in the end it wasnt because he wanted to go look for his dad, it was because of his fear at the time and not _____Verb - Present ends in ING_____ to face what was ruining his life. Love can control you in many different ways and can show you what the correct path is to choose, like when Dannys mom kept the death of Pa a secret and becoming pregnant; however, were those the best decisions? No one would have guessed the quick marriage of Mary and Hank would ever come to be. Only Mary knew what to expect. Remember! Love is the truth.
