The Sailboat Predicament

Once upon a _____Noun_____, in the far away _____Noun_____ of San Diego, there was a _____Adjective_____ boy named Konstantin, who liked a very _____Adjective_____ girl named Allie very much. Konstantin wanted to assert his _____Noun_____, and came up with a number of amazing _____Noun - Plural_____ to win Allie over.

On one _____Noun_____ Friday afternoon in particular, Konstantin had a _____Noun_____ Allie would never forget. He picked her up at her _____Noun_____, and started driving. Allie had no idea what to expect; but she was used to that with Konstantin. As they continued to _____Verb_____, Allie saw the _____Noun_____, and Coronado Island, and even more _____Noun_____. She had no idea where they were _____Verb - Present Tense_____, but knew that if they kept driving much further, they would run out of _____Noun_____!

Finally, Konstantin pulled in to their _____Adjective_____ destination. Around them was even more _____Noun_____! "What does he have _____Verb - Past Participle_____?" wondered Allie. Konstantin handed Allie a plastic _____Noun_____ and informed her to put any _____Adjective_____ belongings in it - she would need it.

The next thing she knew, they were _____Verb - Present ends in ING_____ on a _____Noun_____, setting up a sailboat. Allie had been on many _____Noun - Plural_____ before, but usually she was accompanied by _____Noun - Plural_____. She was nervous and _____Adjective_____, but _____Verb - Past Tense_____ Konstantin anyways.

After

a few _____Particle_____ setting up the boat, they were off! Konstantin got a little _____Adjective_____ while trying to explain to Allie how the _____Noun_____ worked, but after a few minutes they got the hang of things. They sailed _____Adverb_____ and _____Adverb_____ the _____Noun_____, looking at interesting sites, and enjoying the (somewhat) _____Adjective_____ weather. As the day began to wind down, they turned their _____Noun_____ around and headed back towards _____Noun_____. Suddenly though, they noticed something was _____Adjective_____! As they got closer to _____Verb_____, the boat would not _____Verb_____! They thought of everything; they googled, considered _____Verb - Present Tense_____, even tried paddling the boat, but nothing would work. For over an hour they sat _____Verb - Past Participle_____, how would they ever get back to _____Verb_____ safely?

Finally, Konstantin came to the rescue. After much trying and a little bit of failing, they finally made it back to _____Verb_____ safe, and only _____Number_____ _____Noun_____ late. Allie had one of the most fun _____Noun - Plural_____ she had ever been on, and it was all because of Konstantin.

The end.
