

Once during an especially magical DTS outreach

1. Verb - Present Ends In Ing _____
2. Verb - Present Ends In Ing _____
3. Verb - Present Ends In Ing _____
4. Verb - Present Ends In Ing _____
5. Verb - Present Ends In Ing _____
6. Verb - Present Ends In Ing _____
7. Verb - Present Ends In Ing _____
8. Verb - Present Ends In Ing _____
9. Verb - Present Ends In Ing _____
10. Verb - Present Ends In Ing _____
11. Verb - Present Ends In Ing _____
12. Verb - Present Ends In Ing _____
13. Verb - Present Ends In Ing _____
14. Verb - Present Ends In Ing _____
15. Verb - Present Ends In Ing _____

Once during an especially magical DTS outreach

Once during an especially magical outreach: eating, singing, laughing, fighting, hitting, smiling, running, riding, talking, walking, working, lifting, dancing, making, learning, speaking Chinese, and puppeteering were all of the favorite activities for a student going to Asia.

When we arrived in China, _____ Verb - Present ends in ING for Chinglish was something Gerund enjoyed.

_____ Verb - Present ends in ING pictures of these funny phrases made him very happy. Forgetting he was a verb was easy. Showing his friends and family that he was a noun was going to be fun. Working to make verbs into nouns wasn't easy. Capturing moments on the trip Gerund sat down and was enthralled in the act of writing.

Gerund asked a man in the park, "Do you like _____ Verb - Present ends in ING?"

"Yes, I like playing basketball", said the Chinese student.

Listening comprehension was a problem for some in China.

"_____ Verb - Present ends in ING logs made my back hurt" said Peter.

"I don't like _____ Verb - Present ends in ING hemorrhoids" said Tim as he bounced around on the bus.

"Pooping is so painful. I think _____ Verb - Present ends in ING is an important part of this trip."

"_____ Verb - Present ends in ING up in Xining was a tough part of the trip for me. I am surprised I didn't vomit in Minayung, with the rotten egg, Looking at me you could see I was gagging." said Amie.

"Eating too much oily food makes me sick," said Ashleigh.

Snoring kept me awake last night.

Verb - Present ends in ING guitar is fun, especially while hiking up a mountain.

Emily said, "It won't be easy leaving all outreach friends."

"Verb - Present ends in ING can make your face red", replied Steven after he took a video of her saying goodbye.

"Verb - Present ends in ING of outreach will remind you of us", said Shannah.

Puppeteering was difficult, but it was Verb - Present ends in ING.

Then Mel said, "I don't like Verb - Present ends in ING took-tooks because of the creepy drivers yelling at us. I like Verb - Present ends in ING people's bags though."

"Screaming children are so terrible to my ears," said Peter "I hate Verb - Present ends in ING FGCCC."

"I don't like Verb - Present ends in ING Joutsa", said Amanda. Having Joutsa for dinner makes me throw up.

Compiling these types of quotes was very pleasing process for Gerund who had a thing for nounifying verbs.