Hello Stonehenge - Doctor Who

"Hello Proper Noun! Who takes the Noun, takes the Noun! But, bad news everyone, 'cause guess who! Ha! Except you lot, you're all Verb - Present ends in ING about, its really, very distracting, could you all just stay still a minute, because I- AM- Verb - Present ends in ING! Now, question of the Unit of Time is: 'who's got the Proper Noun?' Answer: I do. Next question: who's coming to take it from me? C'mon! Look at me! No Noun, no Noun, no Noun - Plural worth a damn. Oh and something else: I don't have anything. To. Lose! So If you're Verb - Present ends in ING up there in your silly little Noun - Plural with all your silly little Noun - Plural, and you've got any plans on taking the Proper Noun tonight, just remember who's standing in your way. Remember every black day I ever stopped you. And then, AND THEN, do the Adjective thing... Let somebody else try first."
