More stories at WordBlanks.com

Treasure Island - Andrew Hasik

1. Pronoun _____
2. Verb - Base Form _____
3. Adverb _____
4. Adjective _____
5. Conjunction _____
6. Proper Noun _____
7. Preposition _____
8. Noun _____

Treasure Island - Andrew Hasik

Being and old drunken captain, Billy Bones would find joy in rum, and treasure. Billy Bones, being an old mate of famous Captain Flint, still wants to find his buried treasure. Billy Bones, now staying at the Admiral Benbow Inn, spends _____Pronoun_____ time drinking. While drinking, Billy thinks about his previous life, when he was a joyful and aggressive pirate. Jim Hawkins, the son of the owners of Admiral Benbow Inn, believes Billy Bones is hiding something. Jim Hawkins _____Verb - Base Form_____ _____Adverb_____ about what Billy Bones is hiding, mainly because of Billy's drunkenness. A few months later, Billy Bones is visited by a violent and _____Adjective_____ pirate named Black Dog. Black Dog and Billy Bones were "friends," and their discussion is filled with cruel sayings, Black Dog leaves Billy Bones, and Bones later has a stroke. After his stroke, Billy Bones spends most of his life in bed, but sometimes takes a trip to the bar. Jim Hawkins spends a lot time with Billy Bones caring for him. One day, Billy Bones tells Jim Hawkins that his old crewmembers are coming after him. Bones tells Hawkins that he was an old crewmember for Captain Flint, _____Conjunction_____ his old mates want his sea chest. Jim Hawkins doesn't know what to do, but one day, a mysterious man arrives at the inn. The man's name is _____Proper Noun_____, and he is obviously blind. Pew wants to see Billy Bones, because he is an old crewmember of Captain Flint. Jim Hawkins refuses to let Pew inside, but Pew insists. Jim Hawkins gives in, and Pew eventually gives a paper to bed-ridden Billy Bones. Billy Bones cautiously opens the scroll, and notices a black spot _____Preposition_____ the paper. Billy Bones drops dead from a stroke, immediately. Jim and his mother are now with dead Billy Bones, and his old sea chest. They decided to open the chest up, and they discover lots of money. Billy Bones's old crewmembers come after the chest, and Pew dies. While coming at the chest the old crewmembers yelled "Stop!" Billy Bones was an interesting man, who was always looking for treasure or a drink. He died from a stroke, and his pirate _____Noun_____ is still with him.

©2026 WordBlanks.com · All Rights Reserved.