More stories at WordBlanks.com

1000 Years 49-70 Keely B

1. Noun _____
2. Noun _____
3. Verb - Past Participle _____
4. Verb _____
5. Coordinating Conjunction _____
6. Proper Noun _____
7. Verb - Present Tense _____
8. Noun - Plural _____
9. Pronoun _____
10. Adjective _____
11. Modal _____
12. Pronoun _____

1000 Years 49-70 Keely B

Would you trust someone with your _____Noun_____? Or more like, take over your life. Sometimes you can't do anything about it. There is one person and an army against the Jews. It would be even harder if your family didn't support you. Elli is worries about all of these things. They're in the _____Noun_____ now and getting _____Verb - Past Participle_____ to one of the camps. They couldn't do anything about it, so Aunt Serena went crazy because she knew by the time they got there that they were going to die with the things they do. They try to kill you very slowly, _____Verb_____ by step. They had to give up their things, _____Coordinating conjunction_____ Aunt _____Proper Noun_____ decided to just smash them against the wall. They're starting to lose it because they are _____Verb - Present Tense_____ things, including their father going to labor camp, somewhere they don't know about. They don't even know how to trust each other anymore. They can't even trust their _____Noun - Plural_____ anymore of what's going on. When _____Pronoun_____ got to the camps they saw people lying in tents on the ground and was wondering what was going to happen to them by the look of that. Trust is a very strong word; it is so _____Adjective_____ that some people _____Modal_____ not even want to use it in a certain occasion. Follow your heart, but be quiet for a while first. Ask good questions, then feel the answer. Learn to trust your heart and everyone _____Pronoun_____ would care for.

©2026 WordBlanks.com · All Rights Reserved.