More stories at WordBlanks.com

Tangerine60-87MS

1. Proper Noun _____
2. Adjective _____
3. Conjunction _____
4. Pronoun _____
5. Verb - Present Tense _____
6. Preposition _____
7. Verb - Base Form _____
8. Adverb _____
9. Interjection _____

Tangerine60-87MS

Tragedy can strike at any time, regardless of what is happening right now because it has no emotions. When _____Proper Noun_____ was told he couldn't play goalie for the soccer team, he was in a state of anger because it was his mom's fault because she signed the papers saying he needs and I.E.P. She doesn't know Paul is just as good as anyone else, just with a _____Adjective_____ problem with his sight, _____Conjunction_____ _____Pronoun_____ has glasses to fix that. It isn't fair Paul's mom chose to sign those papers _____Verb - Present Tense_____ he has a disability when he really doesn't; its not a disability if its helping Paul become accustomed to his new school, _____Preposition_____ which, new friends. When the sinkhole appeared, pure courage and adrenaline came _____Verb - Base Form_____ _____Adverb_____ into Paul's veins, and he knew he had to get the kids out of his classroom. Quickly, he pulled about 20 kids out of the sinking portable, and they ran in pure terror to safe ground in the main building. _____Interjection_____! Tragedy; a terrible word, but it can lead to great things, especially if it is one after another.

©2026 WordBlanks.com · All Rights Reserved.