The Bear

One Year we were in _____ Noun campground and I had a _____ Noun on the back of a pickup truck. Jerry was sleeping in a _____ Noun. I don't remember offhand who else was there. Anyways, the camp host had mentioned that there had been some _____ animal activity in the area but we didn't think too much of it. That night Jerry heard a _____ odd sound or exclamation outside and figured the _____ animal plural had come to visit. I think I slept through the whole affair. The next morning we found that the _____ animal _____, or _____ animal _____ plural, had gone through all our _____ Noun. The biggest surprise was that they had opened the _____ Noun and _____ verb all of our _____ type of liquid! The interesting part was that they had just _____ Verb - Past Tense off the top of the _____ type of liquid _____ Noun just like in one of the TV commercials where some NFL player opened _____ Noun by _____ Verb - Present ends in ING off the top to demonstrate an easy open _____ Noun.
