More stories at WordBlanks.com

The Bunny Who Lost Its Way

1. Preposition _____
2. Preposition _____
3. Preposition _____
4. Preposition _____
5. Preposition _____
6. Preposition _____
7. Preposition _____
8. Preposition _____
9. Preposition _____
10. Preposition _____
11. Preposition _____

The Bunny Who Lost Its Way

There once was a sweet little bunny named Herbert. He was born in Georgia _____Preposition_____ _____Preposition_____ . He lived _____Preposition_____ _____Preposition_____. He loved his room. It was decorated _____Preposition_____ . He kept a light _____Preposition_____ . His best friend was named John . They were always talking _____Preposition_____.

One day, Herbert was walking _____Preposition_____ , when a scary dog jumped out _____Preposition_____ . "Oh no!" said Herbert. "It's the scary dog who lives _____Preposition_____ ! He eats bunnies!" Luckily, the scary dog wasn't hungry, or scary, or even a dog. Herbert was just dreaming. The moral of the story is: "Don't walk _____Preposition_____ ."

©2026 WordBlanks.com · All Rights Reserved.