Loosing My Accent

Straight off of the from the Location, it was like I entered a whole new world. The Noun - Plural where full of Noun , instead of Noun . People were Adjective Verb - Past Participle instead of the traditionally Adjective to Adjective Noun This was a real shock. I felt sophrasephrasebrase But it wasn't until my Verb - Base Form to the new Noun had I began to really change who I was. Insetad of flaunting my, I acted like those who where Verb - Present ends in ING Adjective like Verb - Present Tense Noun. It was different but I liked it. It wasn't until later that I fully became an Adjective Living the everyday life of one, as if I was born an On my return to my Noun, had I have a Noun that I Verb - Past Tense a big part of who I was. Looking back on what was, I felt Adjective to think that Verb - Present Tense my Noun would get me greater Noun . Little did I know, it was my Noun - Plural intention the entire time.
