More stories at WordBlanks.com

Tangerine 207-230

1. Pronoun _____
2. Noun - Plural _____
3. Adjective _____
4. Noun _____
5. Conjunction _____
6. Adverb _____
7. Preposition _____

Tangerine 207-230

Fighting the freeze, how do they do it? Yikes it is cold in the groves, Paul is layered in all the clothes _____Pronoun_____ has fighting the freeze. Paul and Henry D. had Wayne drive them to Tomas Cruz Groves, so _____Noun - Plural_____ can help Luis and Tino fight the freeze. A freeze is what occurs when the temperature stays below 32o for some time and the citrus fields are at risk of freezing and what does that mean! The owner of the grove would have no crop if it freezes, there for no salary, and there would be a shortage of citrus at the store and the price would go up.

When Paul and Henry D. get there they go inside the hut. They see Luis and he asks them what they are doing; they said they came to help fight the freeze. The whole War Eagles are there, but the girls. Luis assigns Paul and Henry D. to Tinos team. Paul and Henrys jobs were re-packing dirt around the _____Adjective_____ Dawn _____Noun_____, hauling tires for the fire, keeping the diesel full for the smudge pots, _____Conjunction_____ to help in any other crisis that came up. Every couple minutes the temperature was dropping horribly. The War Eagles were fighting _____Adverb_____ until morning. When the temperature and the sun started rising they all stopped and went inside. Hopefully, they have saved a large part of the Tomas Cruz Groves. Paul had to leave the next day _____Preposition_____ eight in the morning for Erik's last football game.

©2026 WordBlanks.com · All Rights Reserved.