Old Bess

Mr. Nicholas raised Noun - Plural . He had many of all kinds, but his favorite was Bess. She was Adjective and Adjective , and spent her days grazing peacefully in the Noun . That summer, for fun, Mr. Nicholas went to a fortune-teller's booth. She studied her Noun - Plural and said, "I see danger ahead for you. Your Bess will cause you to get hurt. I don't know when, but it will happen."

Mr. Nicholas laughed. Bess was not dangerous - she was too Adjective ! But he was worried nevertheless.

Later, a Noun down the road asked if he could have Bess. "She would be perfect for my children to Verb ." Mr. Nicholas agreed, and told his wife later that Bess would not be able to Verb him now.

A few Noun - Plural later, Mr. Nicholas saw the man. "How's Bess?" he asked. "Oh, she was okay, but then she got Adjective and Verb - Past Participle . It was a shame. I'm sorry, Mr. Nicholas." Mr. Nicholas was Adjective , but also relieved - now Bess could not harm him.

"I'd like to see her to say goodbye," said Mr. Nicholas. He went to the Noun and saw her Noun - Plural . He sat down next to the Noun - Plural . Just then, a Noun popped out of the bones and bit Mr. Nicholas.
