Alex M- Treasure Island

Leadership is always needed in a _____Adjective_____ _____Noun_____ but there can not be a leader without a follower. Leadership is when somebody is always ready to be a leader, and when they get their chance they shine . This is exactly what Jim did when he knew he needed to step up for himself. I was thinking when Jim _____Verb - Base Form_____ around _____Adverb_____ to catch up with the boat was why don't you go around the island to the side where the cabin is and stay there safely? Then I realized this was his chance to get the treasure, which is _____Preposition_____ the sand, _____Conjunction_____ be a leader for himself. He would want to be a leader because obviously there has been no good leader for _____Pronoun_____. Also Jim probably realized you can't trust anybody , but yourself. I also believe Jim made a good decision by letting Israel Hands on board because it is good to have an extra hand on board to help. Jim has stepped up and realized you should live your life and not let anybody lead it for you. _____interjection_____ _____interjection_____ _____interjection_____!
