Mud Run

On the 20th of May this year we had an excellent time at the mud run at Riverview Middle School in Plymouth Wisconsin. The first event was fun jumping through kiddy pools and dodging obstacles. The slide was _____Adjective_____ wet and it was funny watching people slide down. We also did a cool -aid run with the cup fulled to the top, we got soaked. Now it was time for the _____Adjective_____ Mullet River.

We had to get on a tube and _____Verb - Base Form_____ with our _____Noun - Plural_____ to get to Mr. Hoopman. Our legs and shoes got all wet and muddy. The Golf ball on a tee we did next. We had to run through _____Verb - Past Tense_____ water and balance the golf ball on our _____Adjective_____ hand. Oh joy, not really, next we had to flip a heavy tire three times. Which I found annoying and very boring.

Okay, I saw Mr. Larsen and was ready for the gunny sack race with my partner, Taylor. Unfortunatly, I fell on my _____Noun_____ like three times! The army crawl I was not looking forward to. But it was next and Taylor was so far ahead of me. The last event was a bean search through _____Noun_____. Our hands and shirts got all full of oatmeal and it looked nasty!
