oh, the things we can think of...

I met two people in my Noun of state 5 years ago. We went to the same Noun and came up with cool nicknames for each other like First Name of a Person and Second name of person.

Then we went to place, and decided to ride the biggest Noun there. First Name of a Person fell out so Second name of person jumped out to save her. Third name of person forgot that she had to get her Noun - Plural so she was left in the Noun for hours while First Name of a Person left for the type of person to fix her broken part of body.
