

The Rose Family Story

1. Adjective
2. Adjective
3. Adjective - Superlative
4. Noun - Plural
5. Adjective
6. Noun
7. Verb
8. Adjective
9. Adjective
10. Adjective
11. Adjective
12. Noun
13. Adjective
14. Verb - Past Tense

The Rose Family Story

Once there was a Adjective family named the Roses. They had lived all over the United States but the Air Force decided it was time for them to move to Adjective Charleston, SC. Little did they know this was going to be the Adjective - Superlative move of their Noun - Plural. There was the Adjective dad named Derek. His wife was named Sarah and she had beautiful flowing red Noun. They had a daughter named Callie who loved to Verb and a little Adjective headed boy named Camron. They knew they needed to make some Adjective friends so they became members of the NCCoC. It took a little while but soon, they fit right in! They even decided to have a Adjective Adjective girl they named Kennedy. All was good in their Noun. They played sports, went to parties, taught classes at church, went to devos and became active in the young adult program. They made many Adjective friends. Callie and Camron Verb - Past Tense going to camp every summer. Sarah got to go on a life changing mission trip to Guyana. Derek lead many devotionals and taught bible classes. Kennedy made everyone smile with her colorful dress and sunny personality. Then one day, Derek was offered a new job near Denver, Colorado. Everyone was so sad to hear that the Rose family would be moving away but they wish them good luck in their new adventure. All the good memories will stay in our hearts and we know God has great plans for them!