Once upon a time there was a girl named           A Name          . She didn't think she was good at art at all. When art class was over her art teacher Mrs.           A Funny Word          , walked over to her and saw           The First Names           paper was blank. So Mrs.           The First Funny Word           said "Aha its a           White Animal           in a blissard. Mrs.           The First Funny Word           said make a mark and she did then Mrs.           The First Funny Word           said "Sign it." and she did the next morning           The First Name           came in to class and her picture of a DOT was hanging up.           The First Name           thought if I can make little dots i can make big dots and           A Number           weeks later her pictures of dots were hanging up in the art show. A little boy walked up to her and said "I wish i could draw" and           The First Name           said Make a mark then she said sign it.
