4th of july

On July 4th Mt Washington celebrated with its 13th annual Spirit of Mt. Washington Independence Day Parade.

This year the _____ Noun began and ended at Springwell, the senior living facility on Rodgers Avenue. It was awesome for residents to see the parade take off from the beautiful grounds there at springwell. _____ from Springwell "<residents look forward to this>"

Despite the heat, the _____ Noun contingent represented, though tongues were 6 inches longer then when they started. Bikes were out in full force, Bagpiper, crazy hat, wagons full of flag wavers, the amazing guys balancing watermelons on their heads and a recreation of _____ Proper Noun Crossing the Delaware. _____ was our centragenarian who enjoyed a cruise in ____'s ____'s

This year too, we continued to enjoy the community partnership with WholeFoods who contributed _____ Noun and _____ Adjective _____ Noun. But the highlight for many is always choosing from the dozens upon _____ Adjective of _____ Noun that our awesome volunteer bakers contribute. Spilly the hula hoop _____ Noun was on hand to get bodies moving, much to the delight of young and old. Paul Yutzy gave some tunes to get us started, and Magic Eddie astounded mt washington swim club hosted the whole _____ Adjective _____ Adjective bunch of us at the pool where the celebration
