On the first and third Friday of each month, your school, St. Joseph High School, celebrates Mass. This Friday is a feast of the Holy Family, and Mass is being celebrated to honor Joseph and Mary for their example of faith and love as the earthly _____Noun - Plural_____ of Jesus. In preparation for Friday's Liturgy, St. Joseph administrators ask all teachers to review the order of Mass with their homerooms. While reviewing the order of Mass, one of your _____Adjective_____ students, a _____Proper Noun_____, raises her hand and says, "My parents told me that the Bible says you shall not have any other gods besides Me... and you shall not have salvation unless through Jesus. Why are we _____Verb - Present ends in ING_____ Joseph and Mary this Friday when the Bible clearly says not to?" Immediately, other students begin to speak up in like manner, "Why do we pray to Mary and the Saints? Shouldn't we just pray straight to Jesus?" How would you respond to your students?
