The Story of DayNine

A long time ago, back 1991 when things like _____Noun_____ and _____Noun - Plural_____ were "in," PeopleSoft was rapidly growing from the _____Adjective_____ vision of Dave Duffield and Ken Morris. Just down the road a team of _____Adjective_____ visionaries were gathering to _____Verb_____ their place in the industry.

Over the next five years, Ramos & Associates would continue to grow. During this time their loyalty and commitment to PeopleSoft and its focus on their customer's success remained _____Adjective_____. As a result, they were repeatedly recognized as PeopleSoft's most _____Adjective_____ implementation partner. In 1996 after growing to over 200 of some of the most _____Adjective_____ consultants around, Ramos & Associates ultimately joined with Cambridge Technology Partners.

Fast forward to 2009. This is when the _____Adjective_____ Tim Ramos, along with the _____Adjective_____ Jeanne Bauhart and the _____Adjective_____ John Harless, founded DayNine Consulting, and once again became a _____Adjective_____ partner with Dave Duffield and co-founder Aneel Bhusri's in their new venture, Workday.

Over the next couple years, DayNine continued to rapidly grow and round out the leadership team adding the _____Adjective_____ Bill Catalano and the _____Adjective_____ Darrell Pope, along with industry veterans including the _____Adjective_____ Jim Lambert and the _____Adjective_____ Thor Nicholas. Again, leveraging a history of success and common core values with Workday, DayNine is building a place to work that is _____Noun_____ and whose culture is _____Adjective_____ with a new and _____Adjective_____ team. Together, Workday and DayNine are well on their way to creating yet another game changing and _____Adjective_____ partnership.
