The Story of DayNine

A long time ago, back 1991 when things like _____ Noun and _____ Noun - Plural were "in," PeopleSoft was rapidly growing from the _____ Adjective vision of Dave Duffield and Ken Morris. Just down the road a team of _____ Adjective visionaries were gathering to _____ Verb their place in the industry.

Over the next five years, Ramos & Associates would continue to grow. During this time their loyalty and commitment to PeopleSoft and its focus on their customer's success remained _____ Adjective. As a result, they were repeatedly recognized as PeopleSoft's most _____ Adjective implementation partner. In 1996 after growing to over 200 of some of the most _____ Adjective consultants around, Ramos & Associates ultimately joined with Cambridge Technology Partners.

Fast forward to 2009. This is when the _____ Adjective Tim Ramos, along with the _____ Adjective Jeanne Bauhart and the _____ Adjective John Harless, founded DayNine Consulting, and once again became a _____ Adjective partner with Dave Duffield and co-founder Aneel Bhusri's in their new venture, Workday.

Over the next couple years, DayNine continued to rapidly grow and round out the leadership team adding the _____ Adjective Bill Catalano and the _____ Adjective Darrell Pope, along with industry veterans including the _____ Adjective Jim Lambert and the _____ Adjective Thor Nicholas. Again, leveraging a history of success and common core values with Workday, DayNine is building a place to work that is _____ Noun and whose culture is _____ with a new and _____ team. Together, Workday and DayNine are well on their way to creating yet another game changing and _____ partnership.
