

The Story of DayNine

1. Noun
2. Noun - Plural
3. Adjective
4. Adjective
5. Verb
6. Adjective
7. Adjective
8. Adjective
9. Adjective
10. Adjective
11. Adjective
12. Adjective
13. Adjective
14. Adjective
15. Adjective
16. Adjective
17. Noun
18. Adjective
19. Adjective
20. Adjective

The Story of DayNine

A long time ago, back 1991 when things like _____ Noun and _____ Noun - Plural were "in," PeopleSoft was rapidly growing from the _____ Adjective vision of Dave Duffield and Ken Morris. Just down the road a team of _____ Adjective visionaries were gathering to _____ Verb their place in the industry.

Over the next five years, Ramos & Associates would continue to grow. During this time their loyalty and commitment to PeopleSoft and its focus on their customer's success remained _____ Adjective. As a result, they were repeatedly recognized as PeopleSoft's most _____ Adjective implementation partner. In 1996 after growing to over 200 of some of the most _____ Adjective consultants around, Ramos & Associates ultimately joined with Cambridge Technology Partners.

Fast forward to 2009. This is when the _____ Adjective Tim Ramos, along with the _____ Adjective Jeanne Bauhart and the _____ Adjective John Harless, founded DayNine Consulting, and once again became a _____ Adjective partner with Dave Duffield and co-founder Aneel Bhusri's in their new venture, Workday.

Over the next couple years, DayNine continued to rapidly grow and round out the leadership team adding the _____ Adjective Bill Catalano and the _____ Adjective Darrell Pope, along with industry veterans including the _____ Adjective Jim Lambert and the _____ Adjective Thor Nicholas. Again, leveraging a history of success and common core values with Workday, DayNine is building a place to work that is _____ Noun and whose culture is _____ with a new and _____ team. Together, Workday and DayNine are well on their way to creating yet another game changing and _____ partnership.