More stories at WordBlanks.com

Traffic signs in New Zealand destroyed by prostitutes performi

1. Adjective _____
2. Noun - Plural _____
3. Adjective _____
4. Noun - Plural _____
5. Location _____
6. Adjective _____
7. Number _____
8. Noun - Plural _____
9. Adjective _____
10. Number _____
11. Location _____
12. Adjective _____
13. Verb - Present Ends In Ing _____
14. Proper Noun - Plural _____
15. Noun - Plural _____
16. Adjective _____
17. Verb - Present Ends In Ing _____
18. Full Name Of A Person _____
19. Adjective _____
20. Verb - Present Ends In Ing _____
21. Verb - Base Form _____

Traffic signs in New Zealand destroyed by prostitutes performi

Dozens of _____Adjective_____ signs have been destroyed by _____Noun - Plural_____ performing _____Adjective_____ dances in the street to attract _____Noun - Plural_____, officials in _____Location_____ 's _____Adjective_____ city have revealed.

More than _____Number_____ _____Noun - Plural_____ have been bent, _____Adjective_____ or broken in the past _____Number_____ months in one area of south Auckland, _____Location_____, it is claimed.

The signs, bearing _____Adjective_____ required notices such as _____Verb - Present ends in ING_____ restrictions, are thought to have cost _____Proper Noun - Plural_____ thousands of dollars to replace.

"_____Noun - Plural_____ use these _____Adjective_____ sign poles as _____Verb - Present ends in ING_____ poles," said _____Full Name of a Person_____ , an elected member of the city council's _____Adjective_____ Local Board.

"The poles are part of their _____Verb - Present ends in ING_____ equipment and they often _____Verb - Base Form_____ them.

"Some of the prostitutes are big, strong people."

©2026 WordBlanks.com · All Rights Reserved.