Gwen's Day at the Doctor

One day, Gwen and Brittney took a _____Adjective_____ trip to get an offsite _____Adjective_____. Like everything else in the VA system, this of course took a very long time. Like everything else this summer, Gwen and Brittney had a plan. They gassed up the car, Britt was navigating, and off they went, or so they thought! It took only two loops around the same bridge before they realized they were lost, and driving around in circles, literally . FINALLY, they arrived in what seemed like the setting of a horror film, and entered an industrial warehouse where the "doctor" was located.
